

WESTERLY

Judge Edward M. Burke held a special session of the Western probate court Friday for a hearing on the allowance of the will of Sarah Sheldon Loveland, reputed the wealthiest woman resident. The will is so constructed as to not reveal the real value of the estate. The will was admitted to probate without objection. Mrs. Loveland was the widow of John S. Loveland and died November 1, 1920. The will was executed, April 25, 1913, and witnessed by John T. Edmund and Ira B. Crandall. Georgianna Langworthy, adopted daughter of testator and wife of Albert H. Langworthy, was confirmed as sole executrix of the will with personal bond of $100,000. Albert N. Crandall was appointed appraiser.

The only public bequest was $300 a year to Calvary Baptist church, during the lifetime of the executrix, and upon the death the sum of $500. To Albert H. Langworthy and Georgianna Langworthy and Georgianna Langworthy is given fifty shares of stock, each of the Spring Valley Water Works, California. To Wilma Hubbard Sheldon and John L. Sheldon is given $500 each, and to Robert Duncan Langworthy $1000.

All monies on deposit in banks is bequeathed to Emma L. Langworthy, the granddaughter, and to Nathan L. Langworthy grandson, the principal to be kept intact until the beneficiaries reach the age of fifty years, and then to be divided among them equally. To Georgianna Langworthy is given the use of the house and all it contains during her lifetime, and upon her death to be given to Emma and Nathan Langworthy, in equal parts. In the event of their deaths, to their offspring, if any survive. This provision prevails throughout the will.

All the bonds, testator inherited from her sister, Mrs. Lux, are to be held in trust during the natural life of Georgianna Langworthy, she to receive with Emma and Nathan Langworthy. The rest and residue of the estate is given to the beneficiary heretofore named in the will, and on an equal basis.

Henry C. Rowe, formerly of Groton, has purchased from F. Kingsbury Curtis a large tract of land at Watch Hill. It is bounded on the west by the golf course and the Griscom property, and on three sides by the Western road Ocean View road and Shore road, with a road frontage of more than a mile. The property extends from the Western road to the shore. There are two houses with garages included in the purchase. Mr. Rowe plans to improve the property and will build a home there which he will occupy for a part of each year.

Miss Anna T. Sullivan, 37, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John H. Sullivan, was found dead Friday morning, in her room at her home, in Downer street, evidently from suffocation by illuminating gas. Miss Sullivan was thirty and industrious and for several years was engaged at dressmaking. She owned a house on Liberty street, another in Summer street, also the one in which she died. Her father was a blacksmith and did quite a business in the manufacture of stone-cutters' tools. Miss Sullivan maintained her home for herself and her brothers who remained in Westerly.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

To have a clear, pink skin—bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must keep your body free from poisonous wastes. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effect. Take one nightly and note results. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually, 10c and 25c.

Among new books of fiction received at the library are: Bassett, Wall Between; Bindloss, Wilderness Mine; Blankman, Deacon Babbitt; Fox, Erskine Dale; Pleasner, Gale, Miss Lulu Bett; Glasgow, The Builders; Jordan, Ways of Youth; Lee, Chinese Coast; Lutz, Witness; Marshall, Abington Abbey and The Clintons; Mullins, Blossom Shop; Oemler, Slippery McGee; Reynolds, Green Valley; Rinehart, Poor Wife Man; Buck, Land Girl's Love Story; Sinclair, The Quilt; Smith, Time Spirit; Stewart, Buck; Wats, Boardman Family; White, Storm Country Polly.

The home economics meeting, which was postponed from last week, is to be held at the library Friday, Dec. 3, at 2:30 p. m. The talk will be given at planned by Mrs. Jeannette Phelan of Rockville.
